Twin Lakes

Balinsasayao and Danao are a haven of pristine flora and fauna. There are two routes to the Twin Lakes that are accessible only with 4X4 vehicles and dirt bikes. On the way, you'll be greeted by the accommodating natives, who are active and instrumental in protecting the lake against exploitation.

While here, you can go kayaking on the clear waters. As you paddle quietly around the sparking lake, you'll see and hear many wild birds; mountain climbing to get an aerial view of the Twin Lakes, which are only separated by a narrow ridge. In these surrounding forests you'll see rare flowers, orchids, and birds.

2-3hr

Drive 20 minutes south and you are in Malatapay, home of the oldest open-air market in Negros. Experience the traditional Philippine "barter" system. The locals from Apo Island and the surrounding mountains eagerly trade livestock, fish, exotic fruits, strange vegetables and household items. Sample some lechon baboy (roast pork) and a cold San Miguel beer while sitting on the beach.

Note: We are not responsible for the treatment of livestock at the market and this trip may not appeal to everyone.

Bird Watching

The full day trip combines some of the most scenic areas in Dumaguete with services of a tour guide and bird watcher. At Twin Lakes look for birds including the Olive-backed Sunbird, Crimson Sunbird, Flaming Sunbird, Yellowish White-eye, Orange-bellied Flowerpecker, Coletto, Visayan Flowerpecker, Blue-headed Fantail, Elegant Tit, Balicassiao, Black-naped Oriole, Visayan Bulbul, Spotted Wood Kingfisher, White-throated Kingfisher, Philippine Tailorbird, Bar-bellied Cuckoo Shrike, White-winged Cuckoo Shrike, Emerald Dove, White-eared Brown Dove, Visayan Tarictic Hornbill, Crested Serpent Eagle and Brahminy Kite and more. Then at the Forrest Camp and the Fish Ponds of Sibulan look out for the Commin Kingfisher, White collared Kingfisher, Black-winged Stilt, Common Sandpiper, Malaysian plover, Little Egrets, Intermediate Egrets, Javan Pond Heron and Brown Shrikes.

- One hour scenic drive through the countryside from the resort.
- Drive past sulphur vents beside the road on the way to the waterfalls.
- No hiking involved.
- One big waterfall with water that has high mineral content, turns rocks rust-red.
- One small waterfall with "normal" spring water and a concrete pool built around it 5 minutes from the waterfalls is a high-mineral content hot spring with a pool.

3-4hr

Dolphin Watching and Campuyo Sandbar

This tour will take you from the resort to Bais, and out to the Tañon Strait, where you can enjoy watching Spinner and Bottlenose Dolphins. The dolphins and whales are attracted to this area due to the large numbers of squid found in this 3,000ft deep strait, and various species of dolphins can be found swimming in large pods. Afterwards you will sail on to the pristine white sands of the Campuyo Sandbar, and have lunch on board your boat before returning to the resort.
